HOCKEY HISTORY

Although women's hockey is a relatively new sport on the twin campuses of Concordia University (Loyola initiated their programme in 1967, while Sir George followed suit in 1971), the lady Stingers and Tommies have made their mark on the local and national scene.

While the Sir George hockey squad suffered through a lack of facilities and able bodied players, the Tommies built up a powerful squad after a few lean years.

The Loyola Hockey Tommies took the campus by storm in 1973-74, after sweeping the titles in the Loyola Invitational Tournament and the Q.U.A.A., as well as gaining national acclaim with appearances on CBC's Hockey Night in Canada and the CBS Saturday Night News. In addition, goalie Janet Norman appeared in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" after leading the Tommies to a 21-6 season, including nine shutouts and a goals-against average of 1.05. Another hockey stand-out of that championship team, Diane Quart won the "Female Athlete of the Year" for four consecutive years.

The Concordia Stingers became the first team to win the Annual Invitational Hockey Tournament twice, when they captured the Championship in 1976. The Stingers, under rookie Coach Bill Doherty will be looking for their third win. Since '76 the Colby Mules took the title in 1977, while the powerful McMaster Lady Macs captured the 1978 tourney and another American school, the University of New Hampshire Wildcats won last year.
